As many of you are already aware, Silver Dollar City's All-NEW Culinary & Craft School opens September 11, 2008. But here's something new - the C&CS website was launched last week!

Now you can go online and find out all about the classes offered and the beautiful craftsmanship that will be displayed throughout the brand new timber-frame farmhouse.

The Best Of Silver Dollar City Cooking, Specialties of the Heartland series will be offered September - December. Did you ever wonder how the culinary craftsmen at Silver Dollar City make Savory Skillet Succotash or those delicious Berry and Mile-High Meringue Pies? Well now is your chance to find out! Go online and register for classes today!

Future Culinary & Craft School offerings will include craft classes from holiday wreath-making to woodcarving, and even classes for kids! Continue to watch the website for updates. Whether you're looking for the perfect family activity, a girl's day out, or something fun just for you, Culinary & Craft School classes will be a real treat!

Get more information about each of the 5 classes offered as well as a complete class schedule when you log on here or go to <http://www.sdcculinarycraftschool.com/>.
