Who's in for some more family fun?

Okay, so I've been by Tom Sawyer's Landing a few times and noticed it was closed, but little did I realize that it is undergoing some big changes that will result in an exciting all NEW family fun ride in 2009! Apparently they are doing a complete overhaul so Tom Sawyers will be closed for the rest of the year. Watch the website because they'll be spilling the beans soon as to what the new attraction will be! Any guesses?
