

Q: Are there discounts available?

Contributed by Questions Answers
Wednesday, 26 March 2008

Q: Ronda asks, "I went to Branson a lot as a child and now its time to take my children. I have a 19 yr, 16 year and 8 year. Is there anywhere that they offer discounts to SDC?"

A: There are a few different things I would suggest. First, if you think you will visit more than once a Silver Dollar City Season Pass is a great value. If you visit even 2 times throughout the year you have paid for the cost of the season pass. Second, Silver Dollar City offers several vacation packages online which include tickets to the park, lodging and tickets to other area attractions like Celebration City, White Water, the Showboat Branson Belle, Dixie Stampede Dinner Show and Ride The Ducks. Usually the Silver Dollar City tickets included in the package are 2 days for the price of one! Check out the "Special Offers and Packages" page on silverdollarcity.com for more information. Sometimes I have noticed that Silver Dollar City will offer special discounts with a partner like Coca-Cola. I haven't seen anything recently, but if I do I will try to let you know.